Teachers notes - Allen & Unwin - Australia

This book attracted me because it deals with forests, especially in the Pacific Northwest, where I live, but it is relevant to other areas. Although the book came out in 1999, I am giving it a 5 rating because the botanical information - based on a lot of down-to-earth research (literally)- is still valid, and the issues of old-growth forests, logging, the economy and the environment, are ...
