I have a 1999 polaris SLX 1050 with a very different problem, it runs great on the top end, but it's a slug off the line and when I do a 360 to the left it starts to flood itself out and when I do 360 to the right it does the same thing. I have had it to three different mechanics no one can fix it we rebuilt the carb three times just to make sure each mechanic felt comfortable with their work.
